

Duration of emergency declared by POTUS in March + 30 days (but not before 7/31/2020) or state-level declaration:
Can't run out of Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation (PEUC) or Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA)

Note: When a worker first claims UI benefits or was already receiving benefits at end of 26 weeks following end of Stafford Emergency Declaration plus 30 days, then they are guaranteed the number of weeks their state's unemployment rate entitles them too. If the unemployment rises they can get the additional corresponding number of weeks, but they cannot lose weeks if their state's unemployment rate falls.

Duration of emergency declared by POTUS in March + 30 days (but can't end before 7/31/2020) or state-level declaration:
$600 in additional weekly benefits

Note: After the 13 week transition of $350/$450 benefits, a worker will receive $0, $200, or $300 in additional weekly benefits based on a reassessment of a state's unemployment rate that occurs every 13 weeks.
